

Beans on Toast

ANNOUNCES 'THE INEVITABLE TRAIN WRECK'
UK TOUR FOR 2019/20

"passionate, funny and human, articulating an everyman's fears about these times."

THE GUARDIAN

Beans is back.

Today, the cult songwriter announces the title of his next studio album, plus an extensive run of UK dates for Winter 2019/20.

A Climate Emergency? Boris as PM? Rail-melting heat waves? A No-Deal Brexit?

Beans' new album could only ever be called one thing:

'The Inevitable Train Wreck'.

For now he's holding his cards quite close to his chest, but he's promised "a rock'n'roll album about our dying planet".

The new release from the Essex folk hero will find him searching for hope and change in what may be Earth's darkest hour.

On-track for a 25 date tour across the nation this Winter, catch him playing songs from 'The Inevitable Train Wreck' and his huge back catalogue at the following UK venues from 4th December 2019 and into whatever 2020 brings:
